

Whatever Became of...

INCORPORATION FOR THE VILLAGE OF WEIDMAN?

Editor's Column

THOSE BEAUTIFUL BEAL CITY ROSES

Mrs. Harold Rau and Mrs. Louis Rau came in to the Messenger office Monday morning with armfuls of the most gorgeous tea roses we've seen outside Jackson & Perkins' catalog.

Every color, every style of rose, from the lovely small floribundas, to the biggest tea roses, were in those bouquets.

They had all the named varieties, Fashion, Goldilocks, Pinocchio, in the small varieties; and Tiffany, Golden Sceptre, Crimson Glory, and Love Song, among the many names they identified among the lovely blooms.

The roses have been gracing the Messenger office this week, where the staff thoroughly enjoyed their beauty.

Those Beal City gals certainly can raise roses. These two have everything from giant tea-rose bushes--which grow larger every year, instead of petering out like on the Roe blow-sand--to a solid blanket of red from a climber on the side of one of their homes.

Truly a treat for all to see, roses of this show-type.

Thanks, gals.

SO WE DROVE TO CHICAGO AND BACK

So Ye Ed and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Roe of Harrison, drove to Chicago last Thursday and stayed till Saturday, when they met a plane bringing Lois Lawson from Kansas City for a few weeks' stay at the Roe home in Weidman.

Connie and Mary walked their feet off, shopping for fifteen dollars' worth of stuff, paid nine times more than they had planned for hotel, eats, and so on--but we certainly got inflation; we remember, and how.

Anyhow, we had a three-day "vacation" from office work.

And, yes, Weidman looked good to us after Chicago.

PLEASE PHONE YOUR NEWS ITEMS IN TO US

Residents of the village of Weidman are respectfully requested to phone or bring your news items in to the Messenger office during the summer months.

Many folks are outdoors in this season's weather, many more are out of town on Mondays, when we have been making our news calls; and it takes nearly a day and ties up the Messenger telephone line, besides, if we place the calls for news. If you will call us, our line will be open and we'll be delighted to take your news items down.

If you'd like to write 'em out yourself, you can drop them through the door-slot on the Messenger's entrance.

We'll greatly appreciate your co-operation on this. So--keep in mind: Please call us next

ISABELLA CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS TO TRAIN INSTRUCTORS

The following letter was received by the Messenger recently:

Dear Miss Roe:

Our chapter is making arrangements to have a class to train instructors to teach classes in Care of the Sick and Injured. This is the same course that Mrs. Bandeen taught in Weidman two years ago. At this time we do not have women available who can teach classes, so are planning to have a nurse from the Area Office train more instructors, providing that we are able to interest at least ten women in the course. Mrs. McCrimmon is one who is interested in your area.

I am enclosing some information week. We shall not be calling generally.

Thanks for readin' us.

WEIDMAN DAY JUNE 28-29-30

MILL CLOSES SUDDENLY AFTER MORE THAN 60 YRS.

Holmes Milling Company closed its doors to the public and laid off three of its six men employees without notice last weekend. The mill was established in the 1890's and had serviced farmers on grinding during this long time.

The village of Weidman was stunned at this sudden move, which laid off Will J. Smith, a 35-year employee; Fred Wilcox, also a long-time worker there, and Glenn McDonald. The area's shock resulted from the loss of service to farmers who have brought feed in for grinding. Weidman values its neighbors' business visits.

"Just a change in procedure," Bernard Woodruff, president, said. "We are milling, making flour and the flour mixes, but not for retail sale, only to wholesalers. Our trucks are on the road."

"We'll do no more grinding for farmers, and no more retail sales."

The mill was established by Albert C. Holmes of Grand Rapids, and went under the business name of Holmes & Anderson, during the latter part of the nineteenth century.

tion regarding the course and we would appreciate having you use it in your paper when there is an opportunity. Thanks for the co-operation you have always given to Red Cross, Very sincerely, Margaret Whitcomb.

Committees working on disaster preparedness are anxious to have women throughout Isabella County trained so that they can teach others, and be prepared to serve their community if necessary. Anyone who is interested in this course should contact Mrs. Kenneth Bandeen, 705 S. Mission, Phone Sp. - 31-681 ---0---

NEWS NOTES

Iva Hobart was on vacation this week and last, visiting her son, Hugh, in Detroit, and going on to Florida.

Mrs. Robert Roe and daughter, Jo Ann, of Harrison called at the Roe and Tranbarger homes Monday. Jo Ann has finished her first year at Michigan State University, and left Wednesday for Traverse City, where she will join a summer theatre group. Jo Ann majors in dramatics at State.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson and two children of Grand Rapids were lunch guests at the home of her father, B. H. Tranbarger and Mrs. Tranbarger, Tuesday.

BRING YOUR MUSEUM TREASURES IN NEXT WEEK

It is hoped the surrounding area will respond as well this year as it did last, in helping make the Old Time Museum for Weidman Day a success.

It is better placed this year, on the front street, in McClain's Garage show room. It will be handled by the MYF, a responsible group headed by Rev. Arlo Vandlen. Dick Shook is handling the problem of having helpers at the garage all next week to receive museum pieces. Dick says someone will be there every day next week to take care of your treasures, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. ---0---

PUBLIC REST ROOMS FOR THE PARK

Work is progressing on public rest rooms at Mitchell Memorial Park, with Straus Bros., contractors, promising completion for Weidman Day, next week.

They will be of cement block construction, and planned for eventual finishing at a future time when flush toilets and wash stands can be installed.

The Weidman Business Association is paying for them, a matter of several hundred dollars. ---0---

North Road Opened for Weidman Day

Ernest Bruce, Isabella county road engineer, dropped in at the Messenger office Tuesday afternoon, to announce that work on spreading gravel on the north road out of Weidman will be done in time for Weidman Day traffic--"I hope," Ernie added. Nevertheless, all indications are that the north road will be completed as to the gravel in preparation for blacktopping next year.

The north road has been closed for several weeks, and Weidman folks were greatly uneasy about the prospects for neighbors coming in for Weidman Day.

"We'll try awful hard to get it in shape for traffic by that time," the county engineer said Tuesday.

As to the roads east and south to trunk lines, he said that work is going along fairly rapidly on those places where the Next week Friday, Saturday and Sunday are Weidman Celebration Days, early this year by two months; but, it is felt here, placed at a good season of the year.

Everything is being made ready now for the big event, with members of the Weidman Business Association and the Lions Club of Weidman working overtime on the project.

The Funfair Shows, the good carnival outfit we had last year, is scheduled to furnish rides and a big midway.

For the entertainment throughout the three days, programs have been worked out, beginning with a double-header softball game Friday night; the big Amateur Contest Saturday evening followed by a street dance; and on Sunday afternoon, the Chippewa Wranglers, Mt. Pleasant's riding club, will put on a rodeo again in Mitchell Memorial Park.

The Old Time Museum, an innovation last year, is being put on again, and a fishing contest is now in progress, with entries registered at Smitty's Service Station on the north edge of town. Smitty reports that entires are coming in slow, but they are good. Bluegills predominate in this stage. Up to the first of the week, bass had not yet begun to hit, on the Weidman mill pond or anywhere around. Only fish caught on the local mill pond are eligible for this contest. Good prizes are offered, of fishing tackle.

There will be a big midway, with all kinds of games and stands. The Lions Club of Weidman is planning a couple of amusement stands, one a throw-the-ball-and-dunk-a-Lions-member project.

From near and far, then, set aside next week's last three days for Weidman Day, and come on home. You'll have the best time of your life.

PERMANENT CONCESSION AT MITCHELL PARK

The Weidman Business Association is building a permanent soft drink and eat stand at the park here, with the Harold Davys in charge from the beginning. The stand will be ready by Weidman Day, Ted Smith, president of the Association, said this week.

blacktop had to be torn up and replaced.

The ten-mile stretch to US-27 will draw three miles, altogether, of new blacktop surface, after gravel. Blacktopping probably will be done on that this fall.

The road south out of Beal City to M-20 also has been torn up in places, and will be replaced with blacktop surface, Ernie said.

REBEKAHS HAVE GUEST SPEAKER

Iva Mills, chairman of the Oddfellow-Rebekah Blood Bank of Michigan, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rebekah Lodge last Thursday evening. Sister Mills discussed the possibilities of starting a blood donors club among the members. This would pertain not only to members as donors, but relatives and friends are also urged to participate in such a much needed organization. "At any time," Sister Mills said, "anyone in the community who needs blood may call on the Oddfellows and Rebekahs for help. No one knows when he or she may be next on the list needing a blood transfusion."

The Rebekahs will hold further discussion on this matter at their next regular meeting.

Six guests from Saginaw and Carrollton were present among the 25 members who attended.

Election of officers was held and the following members were elected as Assembly delegates: Leta Parks, one year; Alternate delegate, Daisy Embrey; Jewel Wagner, two years, with Kit Johnson as alternate delegate.

Pot-luck supper was served after the meeting and everyone reported a most enjoyable evening.

Cub Scout News

Mrs. Wayne Charnes and Mrs. Mitchell McArthur planned a hike and picnic for Cub Scouts from Dens 4 and 6 last Tuesday morning, but, as usual, it rained.

The group went instead to the school, where the boys played basketball in the gym. Lunch was eaten in the cafeteria.

As lunch was finished the weather cleared, so they went ahead on their hike. This took them to the Fred Rescoe farm, and beyond.

Larry Rescoe and Gary McArthur, two Boy Scouts, went along. Larry was very helpful in leading the Cubs on trails in the woods and to the river on the Rescoe farm.

The party didn't even get lost, they advise the Messenger.

Another softball game was staged last Tuesday night, with Den 6 taking quite a beating from Den 4, 10-7. Jerry Smith was winning pitcher, Tommy Herman the loser.

The game chalked up one win for each team. The Cub Scouts will meet each Tuesday evening at Mitchell Park for softball. It is hoped that other Cubs from Dens 1, 2, 3 and 5 will join the play.

Conservatism!

It might be called another name for "caution." An elephant is conservative when he carefully tests a bridge, before crossing it, to make sure it will bear his weight.

Similarly, a conservative bank is careful about the financial bridges it crosses. Their strength and soundness are carefully tested before proceeding.

This type of conservatism is necessary if the bank is to merit your confidence as a sound and dependable financial institution.
