Obituary

WILLIAM J. COOK

William J. Cook, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cook, was born Oct. 24, 1886. He passed away early Thursday morning, Oct. 21, at his home, after a few months' illness.

His entire life was spent on the farm where he lived in Broomfield Township.

Surviving are his wife, Maycie; one son, Robert, and wife Christine; two grandchildren, Stewart and Sandra; one brother, Herman Cook of Broomfield, and many nieces and nephews. One son died in infancy.

He was a life member of the Zion Lutheran Church of Broomfield, where services were held Saturday, Oct. 23, at 1 p. m., with Rev. Edwin Schmelzer officiating, with burial in the church cemetery.

Will Cook had countless friends who will mourn his passing. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

JOHN CAMERON

John Cameron of rural Blanchard died Oct. 20 in Veterans Hospital in Saginaw. He was born March 5, 1896, in Mecosta County.

He is survived by his wife, Amanda, and a brother, M. B. Cameron, of Belding.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Oct. 23, at 2 p. m. from the Crittenden Funeral Home in Remus, with Elder H. C. Rutherford of Edmore officiating. Burial was in Pine River Cemetery in Blanchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron were longtime residents of Weidman, and many here will remember them and mourn his passing.

MADGE (HIBBERD) TEITZ'S HUSBAND DIES IN FLORIDA

Word has been received of the unexpected death of Harley Teitz of Florida. He was 49 years old, and was in a hospital, but his death was not anticipated. It was understood here he died of a heart attack. He was the husband of Madge Hibberd Teitz.

Madge's brother, Charles Hibberd, and her two sisters, Imogene (Mrs. Earl Forbes) and Ruth (Smith), of California and Nevada were in Florida the weekend to be with Madge.

Madge's address is 726 Southeast Tenth Avenue, Deerfield Beach, Florida.

It was thought here the John Hibberds were staying with Imogene's son while she is away. The John Hibberds planned to visit

Charles' and Imogene's families till after Dec. 19, when Charles' daughter, Phyllis, will be married; after which the John Hibberds planned to visit Ruth's home in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Madge Hibberd has many friends in this area, having graduated from the Weidman High School and living her early life in this community. We offer our sincere sympathy.

GEORGE McCLAIN, SR., WESTERN HUNTING GUIDE

George McClain, Sr., of Barryton is enjoying life as a hunting guide at Cimarron Lodge, near Montrose, Colorado. Peggy is with him, enjoying the beautiful Colorado scenery and also the hunting.

George anticipates hunting again with Wayne King, the famous orchestra leader, as he did last year.

He expects to return home around Nov. 5. His hunting license calls for two mule deer and one elk.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN!--Here's that cute Debbie Graham, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meryl Graham, modeling for her father in a Hallowe'en setting. Most folks will observe Hallowe'en Saturday night, this week, as the 31st falls on Sunday. Hallowe'en parties were held at the Weidman School Wednesday, there being no school Thursday and Friday.

WORK ON DAM HERE GOES ALONG IN BAD WEATHER

Work on the dam for Lake of the Hills goes along in the face of cold winds and rain, snow, and just plain bad weather.

Tuesday of this week the engineer was here for inspection of the work so far, and Allen Lumber Co., developers and builders of the dam, said their plans are for pouring cement probably Friday on the north half uprights of the dam.

Spillway forms were being set during the middle of this week.

Shape and size of the lake are emerging as trees lose leaves surrounding the 100-acre lake project. Shore lines are clearly visible around the east end of the lake, on the Ohls, Wilcox and Roe's Acres pieces. They show very beautiful, too, as Allen's have roughed them in, and they are sandy shores, all around the lake.

WEIDMAN WILL GROW--In the midst of lakes, we are growing.

YOUNG COUPLE ATTEND INSURANCE COURSE AT MSU

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Pitts recently spent eight days on the campus of Michigan State University, on an insurance course. They completed the course and passed with flying colors. They went back this week for three days of intensive work on a finishing course, with practical insurance procedures featured. They have their solicitors' licenses.

Next spring they plan to go into the insurance business in Weidman, with Bernard carrying on his radio and television work, and a display floor in their Weidman office. Bernard now is doing service work for Montgomery Ward of Clare, and the Graham Store in Farwell, besides his private repair clientele.

We are happy to welcome these young people to our business section of Weidman, and hope they will make their home here.

BETTER THAN A LETTER

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone who sent the many cards, flowers and gifts while Will was in the Edmore and Alma hospitals; and a special thanks to Emil Lueder and Richard Cook for the donations of blood.

We especially thank everyone for their thoughtful kindnesses to us in the loss of our loved one; the gifts of food from neighbors, friends and Ladies Aid; the children of the St. Paul's Lutheran Choir for the songs, and Mrs. Frank Eldred for the music;

Rev. Schmelzer for the words of comfort at the services; the pallbearers; Messrs. Crittenden and Daggett, for their services; the many lovely flowers and memorial gifts from friends and relatives, and anyone who in any way helped us through this time of sorrow.

We thank you.

The Family of William J. Cook.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Eva Smith Breuer who passed away Oct. 11, 1958, and Will J. Smith, Oct. 25, 1962.

A happy home we once enjoyed,

How sweet the memory still!
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.

We often think of those happy days

When we were all together.

Your loving smile and cheerful ways

Will live in our hearts forever.

In the Editor's Mail

Dear Connie:

I arrived in Florida Oct. 5. I came down with the Egberts from Deerfield Center. They have a winter home at Pinellas Park. We had a nice trip. The country was beautiful with the leaves turning color.

The folks here were glad to have me back, and it was good to see them again. They are wonderful people and real Christians.

I didn't give you my address, R1, Box 283-H, Tampa 33612.

Sincerely
Blanche Carr.

Dear George and Connie:

Received the Weidman Messenger today and see where you wish you had Louis Thomas' address.

Well, I looked it up and the telephone number jibed, so here it is:

Louis Thomas, 1017 Roger, NW Grand Rapids, Mich.

We hope he finds his beagle OK. Millie Dent.

(Editor's Note: We hope so, too, and thanks, Millie, for sending his street address. This might help in his getting his beagle back safe and sound.)

MRS. CHARLES TIEDEMAN

Marlene Merrihew, Charles Tiedeman Married in Early Fall Wedding

Marlene Kay Merrihew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Merrihew of Whiteville Road, Farwell became the bride of Charles Tiedeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tiedeman of Kapplinger Road, Farwell.

The early fall wedding was performed in the First Methodist Church in Mt. Pleasant by Rev. Robert Smith.

Mrs. Donald Hazekamp, organist, accompanied Miss Pamela Batchelder, soloist, as she sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride approached the altar wearing a floor length white tulle gown styled with lace appliques around the portrait neckline and below the waistline of the bouffant skirt. Her sleeves ended in points at the wrist. Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was secured with a cabbage-type rose with extending petals. She carried a cascade arrangement of daisies and roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Pamela Oliver of Farwell and the bridesmaids, both cousins of the bride, were Shari Losey of Mt. Pleasant and Susan Losey of Weidman.

George Tiedeman of Pontiac was the best man and seating the 150 guests were Keith Tiedeman of Flint, brother of the bridegroom and Don Merrihew of Farwell, brother of the bride.

ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM AT WEIDMAN

The Woman's Society of the Weidman Methodist Church observed its 25th anniversary with a program held in the sanctuary, with Marian Beutler as chairman. Mrs. Beutler presented a history of the local Society.

Miss Blanche Cliff was presented with a Woman's Society pin, as the oldest active member. Records find her chairman of a committee as early as 1918.

The first three presidents being deceased, a new hymnal will be dedicated to Edith Gillette, Grace Schappner, and Gladys McArthur.

Letters were read from past presidents not able to attend. Rosebuds were presented to Ellen Thompson, Margaret Den-slow, Nina Forbes, Nina Carrick, Lucile Merrihew, and Va-da Louisell, the past presidents attending. The last rosebud was presented to the pastor's wife, Mrs. Williams Reynders.

A film, "The Living Response," was shown, depicting the growth of the WSCS and its work.

In brief remarks by Rev. Reyn- ders, he stated that, although the reorganization 25 years ago gave the Society a new name, it is important that the church, the community and the nation have the Aid of the Ladies.

Following the program, Mrs. Nina Forbes and Mrs. Catherine Johnson as hostesses served the anniversary tea.

AIRLINE ROLLS OUT RED CARPET FOR THE HIBBERDS

Mrs. Harold Straus received a letter Tuesday from her aunt, Mrs. John Hibberd, describing the Hibberds' recent plane trip to California.

We print Mrs. Hibberd's letter in part. This is only about the royal treatment the airline gave Mr. and Mrs. Hibberd. Actually, the Hibberds arrived to tragedy in California, as their children there were in Florida to be with their sister, Madge Teitz, whose husband died suddenly.

But here's the happy part of Mrs. Hibberd's letter:

Josephine (Mrs. Charles Hibberd) had written to Pamela to tell the plane officials that we are old people, and it was our first flight, and would they look after us. I think she must have told them.

She took us to the Metropolitan Airport at Detroit Tuesday, and I asked her to go to the plane door with us, but she thought she shouldn't. Shortly, before time to announce the flight, a man in uniform came and said to us, "I will take you up to the plane now." And he did. No one else started to go. I asked, "is this a special favor to us?" He said, "It surely is." We got the seats just back of the wings, which they tell me are the choice seats.

We didn't feel the least bit nervous. We stopped 15 minutes in Chicago, but did not have to change planes. While there, a Mr. Stone, in uniform, came to us on the plane and said, "Mr. Hibberd," and introduced himself as from the public relations office. He congratulated us on our 68 years together. He welcomed us and wished us a very pleasant trip, and asked if we were enjoying it, which we were immensely.

As the plane slowed down for San Francisco, there came an announcement over the loud-speaker requesting Mr. and Mrs. Hibberd to confer with someone we didn't catch quite who.

John said, probably the State Police. A stewardess came at that time and gave us a gift, a little white box, "Happy Anniversary," on the cover. Inside was a lovely little anniversary cake.

There was a tube to walk through, so that we stepped from the plane into the second story of the airport office. And a public relations man stood right there to welcome us. He asked us to wait right there.

John said, "Well! What is this all about?" And the man said, "We want to take your picture." They took us to his office, where the prettiest little stewardess was waiting with a corsage, two orchids, also a man from the press, with his camera. While the little stewardess pinned the corsage on my coat, and we were all smiling, he took our picture.

Now what do you think of that for a welcome?

Friends can reach the Hibberds at Charles' address, 41961 Via San Gabriel, Fremont, Calif.

FIRST FHA TROPHY FOR WEIDMAN GIRLS

Nineteen girls of the Weidman FHA attended a regional meeting at Farwell Oct. 23, and brought home Weidman FHA's first trophy.

Nora Houghton and Kathleen Brown were region officers, and as such were chairmen of discussion groups in the morning.

Rev. Tracy of Gladwin spoke on "Morals and Manners Matter" in the afternoon.

The girls won their trophy with an exhibit on "Making Your Money Behave," actually on the management of money.

The whole program was centered on introducing the new program of work for the next four or five years. This will accent money management, individuality, and so on.

Nora Houghton had charge of a group project on "Individuality Counts." Kathleen Brown had charge of the discussion group on "Making Your Money Behave."

Judy Johnston participated with Nora in a skit to introduce their topic, and Lynn Houghton participated with Kathleen in a skit to introduce their discussion topic.

Wednesday the FHA girls took charge of the UNICEF drive for Weidman, combining it with their annual slumber party, Work and Play, at the school.
