NEXT WEEK IS VACATION

Next week is our one-week summer vacation from getting out the paper. As stated in our mast-head, the last week of June and the first week of July; and the Christmas and New Year's editions will be combined. That is, twice a year we take a week off and don't print no paper no-how.

And our faithful news writers please note: Do not send news to the paper next week, June 28. That would be for the July 1 issue, and we are not printing. But DO send your news in on or before Monday, July 5, for the July 8 issue. In other words, take a breather along with us this next week only. After that, we are on regular weekly issues until Christmas time, when we'll print the Christmas and New Year's issues in one paper.

And our heartfelt thanks to our faithful and competent news writers. No other paper, we've always said, had such a large list of dedicated news gatherers from all corners of our area. We appreciate you.

FHA GIRLS ATTEND WORKSHOP AT ALBION

Three of the Weidman FHA officers, Lynn Houghton, president; Gloria Wood, parliamentarian; and Kathleen Brown, secretary, and their adviser, Home Ec instructor Mrs. Margaret Tarsa, attended an FHA leadership training workshop at Albion College recently.

Theme for the workshop was, "Leadership--Your Challenge." Goals were to improve leadership skills, plan effective ways for officers and advisers to work together and other details.

NEWS NOTES

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Hulbert expect to leave June 30 for a week's camping at Onaway State Park, near her parents' home.

Mrs. Clayton Raub was in Grand Blanc part of last week, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson, Alton Brien, and Mrs. Pat Hathaway spent Sunday afternoon and were supper guests of Mrs. Nina Forbes.

Mrs. Nina Forbes visited her daughter, Mrs. Robert Holt, Saturday, and was a supper guest.

The Charles Halfman children are having the mumps.

50th Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. FRANK BENN are happy on their Golden Wedding anniversary. Sunday was the day, and they held Open House at their lovely country home west of Weidman.

About 360 guests appeared in the afternoon, to congratulate them and wish them continued happiness. Besides their many relatives and friends from this whole area, people came from St. Johns, Lansing, Detroit, and Florida.

All their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were home for the occasion.

Mrs. Florence Neelands of Lansing served punch to the guests, and Mrs. Rosalie Benn of Shepherd cut the beautiful wedding cake made by Daisy Embrey.

Mrs. Jean Rohloff had charge of the guest book, and Carol Ann Moore was hostess at the gift book.

The Benns received many beautiful gifts and sincere congratulations from their very many friends and relatives.

They have lived their entire 50 years at their present home. The Benns have three children, Robert of Philadelphia, Mrs. Ronald Carr of Pontiac, and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, also of Pontiac.

They have seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Benn has retired from farming. He has been active in farming and civic affairs for fifty years. While he has turned the farm over to his grandson, Benn Johnson, he still takes pleasure in doing the lighter tasks about the place.

Mrs. Benn was active in church work, and in such service clubs as the Busy Bees, Extension Club, Farm Bureau, etc.

CLASS OF '45 HOLDS REUNION HERE

The graduating class of 1945 of the Weidman High School held its 20th-year reunion at Mitchell Memorial Park June 13.

Those present included nine members and their families.

Richard Stevens, class president, who organized the get-together; June Carr Plank of Wheeler, vice-president; Mary Stewart Wendrow of Mt. Pleasant, Esther Strong Bridget, Mt. Pleasant, Betty Fox Ahlers of Lansing, Virginia Gross Jackson of Mt. Pleasant, George McClain, Jr., of Weidman, Harvey Hammond, Harrison, and Clarence Darnell, of Grand Blanc were those attending with their families. Five members were absent.

A pot-luck dinner was served, and all enjoyed a good visit, and voted to get together again next year.

SHELDONS OBSERVE FATHERS DAY

The family of John Sheldon gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hogen Sunday, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Latham, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Flaughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheldon, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Voss and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilmot, and their families.

A delightful pot-luck dinner was enjoyed beside the Hogens' private lake.

CLASSMATES HONOR CHARLES NEUBECKER AT GOING AWAY PARTY

A going-away party honoring Charles Neubecker was hosted by Richard Shook at his home Saturday evening.

Present were Charles and James Neubecker, Bob Tvorik, Janet Dillenbeck, and Mary Ellen Diomese of Mt. Pleasant.

These classmates of Charles gathered together before he left Sunday for Korea, flying to California. Thursday he expected to fly on to Korea for 15 months of military duty.

In the Editor's Mail

Hi, George and Connie:

We made it down the Mississippi and now we're on our way up the Eastern coast. It's been a wonderful trip.

Wish I could write a book about it--but I'm not gifted as you are.

Sure enjoy the paper. Mary Jo sends it to me.

Josephine

(Editor's Note: The above post card, a beautiful scene of the Boardwalk at Atlantic City, was signed just, "Josephine".

(We figure it's from Josephine Mitchell Woodruff, who, with her husband Bernard, have spent the winter on a cruise down the Mississippi River, around the Gulf of Mexico, we gather, and are now sailing up the Eastern Coast.)

GOOD RAINS BREAK DROUGHT HERE

Good rains in this area Monday night broke a three-weeks drought which had threatened farm crops and had damaged some fruits.

Strawberries were casualties, but later fruits were helped.

---0---

WOODIN SCHOOL REUNION SET FOR JUNE 27

There will be a reunion for students and teachers and their families, who ever attended the Woodin School, at the Drew Hall Sunday, June 27.

Dinner will be pot-luck. Bring your own table service and dish to pass. Bring folding chairs and card tables also.
