MANY ATTEND OES INSTALLATION HERE

Sixty members and guests attended the installation of officers of Waubenoo Chapter No. 360, Order of the Eastern Star, Monday evening at the Masonic Temple in Weidman.

Chapter was opened by Fern Beutler, Worthy Matron. Special guests were introduced, followed by a solo by Foy Williams, accompanied by Barbara Dean, who gave several numbers through the evening.

The installing officer was Lee Fountain; marshal, Lucile Fountain; chaplain, Margaret Gingrich; organist, Barbara Dean; and soloist, Foy Williams.

The following officers were installed: Worthy Matron, Annis Orser; Worthy Patron, Clayton Beutler; Asso. Patron, Floyd Dutcher; secretary, Claribel Beutler; treasurer, Nine Forbes; conductress, Lillian Johnston; asso. cond., Mary Beutler; chaplain, Edna Schultz; marshal, Fern Beutler; organist, Dorothy Navarre; Adah, Alma Dosenberry; Ruth, Ruth Blesch; Esther, Josephine Alkofer; Martha, Reva Titler; Electa, Joyce Morgan; warder, Emma Middlesworth; sentinel, Clyde Beutler.

After the meeting was closed the guests were invited to the dining room for refreshments. Decorations for the dining room, Chapter room and corsages were red, white and blue, as this year marks 100 years of Eastern Star in Michigan.

Guests were present from Ionia, Blanchard, Remus, Big Rapids, Barryton, and Alma and Mt. Pleasant. Among the special guests were Mrs. Orser's three sons and daughter.

Up to the present, the O. E. S. in Michigan has raised over $50,000 for aid to college students, especially those training for the ministry of several denominations and for religious work. At present several students at CMU are receiving aid from O. E. S. by scholarship or grants.

INJURED IN ONE CAR ACCIDENT SATURDAY

Billy Alwood was injured in a car accident late Saturday afternoon on the north Winn road as a passenger in a car driven by Butch Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller of Lansing. The accident occurred when a tire blew out and the driver lost control of the car.

The auto rolled over several times, and was considered a total loss.

Billy suffered serious bruises, but wasn't hospitalized. Both

MR. AND MRS. ARNOLD HALFMAN

GOLDEN WEDDING--The children of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Halfman are planning Open House at the Beal City KC Hall for their parents' Golden Wedding anniversary Nov. 13, from 2 to 4 p. m. All their friends and relatives are cordially invited. The couple have five children: Mrs. Raymond (Bernadine) Fox of Mt. Pleasant, Kenneth and Vernon of Rosebush, Mrs. Joseph (Vera) Neubecker, and Charles of Weidman. They have 28 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. They have lived on their Nottawa farm for the past 48 years.

COLD WORK--Maynard Allen of Alma (no relation to the Weidman Allens) works steadily on shaping shores on Lake of the Hills, through all kinds of weather. (George Skinner calls him "Old Faithful," as he is on the job early and late. The above picture was taken by the Messenger last Saturday, a very raw day, and Maynard's teeth were chattering as he worked. Maynard has a charming young family, his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Brad and Theresa.

ON THE EAST SIDE--Of the Weidman Pond, word is that Willard Searles expected to be back on the job this month.

boys were treated in the emergency room at the hospital in Mt. Pleasant. He also suffered some cuts, not serious.

Earl Gardner died Friday at Stanwood and was buried Monday.

Mrs. Charles Halfman and children spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Bob Akins, and family, in Carson City. Little Matt Akins, a year and a half old, returned to his home after spending a month at the Halfmann home.

Men in Uniform

Pfc. Tim Rahl landed in Na-hu Phang, Vietn Nam, the first part of October. He said it wasn't too bad except for the heat, the rain and the insects, which he said were pretty bad.

Pvt. Sam Rahl of Fort Sill, Okla., is expected home this Thursday for a furlough with his mother, Mrs. Marie Rahl, and family.

Mrs. Clayton Dutcher and son, Jim, were Wednesday luncheon guests of Mrs. Larry Dutcher in Mt. Pleasant. Then Jim boarded the bus for Detroit, where he was sworn in to the Army Thursday morning. Then the boys rode the train to Fort Knox, Ky. Jim called his folks Sunday night to let them know he was in Fort Knox.

Mrs. Ronna Dutcher and son, Brian, Mrs. Connie Methner and daughters, Fonda and Brenda, were among those to see him off at Mt. Pleasant Wednesday afternoon.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY
 HONORS REV. SPIRES
 ON HIS BIRTHDAY
 The Hallowe'en party at the Forest Hill Church of God, held at the Drew Hall Saturday evening, was a howling success, with Rev. Spires winning first prize for his costume, as a very attractive matron of the 1800's. Mrs. Spires received second place, and Rick Johnson third. The judges had a big job, and found it hard to pick the winner from the grand parade.
 This was followed by games for young and old.
 Then the beautiful birthday cake for Rev. Spires was brought out. The cake was one of the most elaborately decorated ones we have ever seen, with the inscription, "Happy Birthday to our beloved Pastor."

The candles were lit, "Happy Birthday" was sung, and Rev. Spires took a deep breath--and blew, and blew, and blew.

But the magic candles refused to all stay out at the same time.

Then came time to cut the cake. He picked up the ribbon-bedecked knife and with a flourish he sank it into the cake. Or did he?

The knife blade bent under the pressure. Ivan Allen then came to his rescue with a hatchet. When that failed to work, a saw was brought in.

It seems a couple of ladies had patiently decorated a huge round wooden cheese box. But when he got to the inside of the box, there was his reward, a card with the inscription:

"My grace is sufficient for thee." II Cor. 12-9.

After this he turned to his table of gifts, we're sure with trembling knees. He got an assortment of gifts, such as a three-minute egg timer to time his sermons, marbles, pocket mirror, used socks, a catalogue, and what have you. He breathed a sigh of relief when the last gift was opened, and sat down to rest; only to have his shoes removed and passed around for a love offering.

Then Rev. Spires showed films of baptismal services we had earlier this summer.

This was followed by a bountiful chili supper, with coffee, cider and friedcakes. We were all on our way home by 10.30, after a wonderful evening of fun and fellowship.

Our revival services start Nov. 15, with Rev. John Burgess of Pontiac as our evangelist. Mark these dates down and be sure and don't miss out on these.

Young People, don't forget the wiener roast Saturday evening at 7.30 at Coldwater Lake. In case of bad weather there will be a pizza bake at the annex.

The Missionary convention at the Forest Hill Church of God was very well attended, and the people feel it was very successful, inasmuch as we received support for the mission field in Haiti for one year. A hundred tambourines were pledged, and money has been turned in for them. Rev. Spires will order them for us.

There were also pledges of $1,000 in money for the support of the field in Jamaica.

All this for our little country church makes each of us proud to be a part of it. Plans are being made for the ones from the church who will attend General Assembly in Jamaica in January. The church is a regular beehive of activity and enthusiasm is riding high among the young people who will be going to the beautiful Caribbean for the first time.

WEIDMAN METHODIST
 Rev. Williams Reynnders, Pastor
 The McArthur Circle of the Weidman Methodist Church will meet at the church Thursday, Nov. 3, at 2.30 p. m. The word is "Woman".

SANDBROOK FOR STATE Representative To Represent DISTRICT 100

Don Sandbrook has worked actively in county government for many years. As a Township Supervisor and as Register of Deeds of Isabella County, Don knows the problems the people have in getting the government services they want.

He feels strongly that local governments are the most sensitive to the people's needs.

If elected to the State Legislature, Don will always consider how any legislative proposal will affect county government. Don promises to work for bills that will strengthen county and local government.

HARVEST FRIEND'S CORN

Neighbors and relatives gathered at the Joe Neubecker home Sunday to harvest Joe's corn. The womenfolk brought food in to feed all the hungry workers.

Joe has been in CMC Hospital several weeks, and has his good and bad days.

When a farmer is down, in this area, his good neighbors and friends are always there to help.

God bless you, Joe, and we miss you.

This reporter went to Midland last Thursday to see an oral surgeon and have some work done on her lower jaw. Mrs. Orma Kripa of Mt. Pleasant accompanied Helen for the day. They called on Orma's aunt and cousin while in Midland. Cathy Alwood stayed with Mrs. Doris Wilmot and Linda.

We are all enjoying the news items from our new Two Rivers reporter, Theresa Bunting. We also hope Mrs. Harvey will be feeling better soon.

Helen Alwood took her son, Bill, to see his doctor Monday, to have his badly bruised shoulder and other parts of his body checked. Bill was hurt in a car accident Saturday.

Congratulations to the two wonderful couples, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rau and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Reihl, who have celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversaries recently. There have been several couples this year so far, and many more to come to have this honor of 50 years together.

John Schumacher entered the Mt. Pleasant hospital Monday after suffering a hip injury in a fall.

Mrs. Andrew Vogel returned home last Friday after undergoing major surgery at CMC Hospital. She is feeling much better.

Terry Schafer and other friends called on Earl Fox at CMC Hospital Sunday. Earl caught his hand in a corn picker last week and lost his thumb besides damage to other fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schafer and Mrs. Gertie Stewart took Pfc. Harry Schafer to Lansing last Thursday to catch a plane for his camp in Arizona. On their way home they called on Mrs. Mary Schafer in Fowler. They found her feeling much better. She had to enter the Carson City Hospital Tuesday for more x-rays.
