BEAR WITH US: WE GOT AN EAR INFECTION

We're getting out the Messenger just any old way we can this week, ol' Connie having been laid flat with another ear infection.

This time it was a dilly, too. We routed out poor Dr. Kowaleski in Remus Sunday afternoon, as the infection was a galloping affair and we were scared.

We couldn't hold the telephone receiver to that bright-red cauliflower ear to get the local news Monday morning. Sorry. We just had to take whatever came in.

The way ol' Connie felt, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, we feel we're lucky to get out a paper at all.

So we hope you'll bear with us this week. We're just putting the pages together any way we can, hoping we can stay on our feet long enough to get the issue out and in the mail.

Thanks for your patience.

THEY CAME UP FROM THE CELLAR--Weidman's basketball team yanked itself up from a first-of-the-season disaster after losing their first seven games, to win eight of their last 12. K. C. Charnes came on good after being out all last year with a knee injury. Doug McArthur was Weidman's leading scorer. Lane Chapman was leading rebounder.

Seniors include McArthur, Charnes, Seymour, Dale Sprague, and Dan Suman. Coach Richard Donley feels he has a fairly good nucleus for next year's team with three Sophomores, Neal Wood, Dave Garrett and Bruce Chapman.

The Weidman team won its first tournament game last Thursday night when it beat Ashley, but lost the District Championship to Beal City Saturday night.

Legion Group Offers Free Papers to Men in Vietnam

WASHINGTON — A nationwide program to provide free hometown newspapers for all military members has been launched by the American Legion Auxiliary. The offer does not include "free" distribution of magazines, books, trade or professional publications.

The free newspapers are being made available to show the Auxiliary's appreciation for the "valiant and heroic struggle for freedom being waged by American servicemen in Vietnam."

Servicemen wishing to get a free subscription to their hometown newspaper should write: National Security Chairman, American Legion Auxiliary, 1808 K St., N.W., Washington, D.C., 20036.

The request should include name, service identification number, address, name of hometown and, where possible, name of newspaper desired. The newspapers will be mailed free for as long as the serviceman is in Vietnam.

Information furnished the Auxiliary should include data on the requestee's estimated length of duty tour.

Army Times.

Our sincere thanks to those interested people who voluntarily called in their news. We could write it down and then type it, but we couldn't use the telephone holder against that horrible ear, to call our regular news list.

Joe Schueller of Mt. Pleasant was a visitor at the Messenger office one day last week, home from spending the winter with his son-in-law and daughter, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. R.A. Schristianson, in Cheyenne, Wyo. The air is thin

The above picture was loaned us by Mrs. Flossie Davy weeks ago, and this is the first we have had space to print it. We are happy to present it now.

Miss Robyn Cale is the daughter of Bob and Millie Cale, formerly of Weidman, now living in Wautoma, Wis.

Miss Robyn is a hair stylist, and obviously a very successful model at hair-style shows.

The picture is from the Northwest Observer, a newspaper apparently published in Ripon, Wis., a nearby city.

Robyn is a granddaughter of Mrs. Davy, who naturally is very happy over the youngster's success in her chosen field.

MOVE INTO NEW HOME AFTER 5TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vore observed their fifth wedding anniversary Sunday, spending the day at the home of her parents in Alma.

They planned to leave their small daughter, six-months-old Rebecca, with her folks while they returned to Weidman and proceeded to move into their new home the first of the week.

The Vores' new home is a rebuilding of the old Hurd place at the corner turn into Weidman from the east, and we are as happy as they that this place has been rebuilt to present a lovely new home site on entering the Village of Weidman.

Cleanup of this corner is an event for rejoicing by the whole town, as we see it, and we congratulate the Vores, on their anniversary, and on their wonderful job of reclaiming this strategic corner.

Incidentally, Mr. Vore ordered up a new telephone for his wife as an anniversary present, and she in turn gave him a Granddad style electric clock for his new living room.

In the Editor's Mail

Dear Connie:

Enclosed check for one year for the Messenger. Almost let it slip by. I certainly would miss not getting it each week.

Hope all is well with you. My family and I are all well.

Thanks for the paper. Helen (Beutler) Cotter Lansing.

Mrs. Constance Skinner Editor, Weidman Messenger Dear Friend and Madam:

I am enclosing a check for $7.55 to renew my sister Laura's paper, which expires June 12, 1966, and five cents is to pay postage to tell her that she got a birthday present from her brother Fred and sister-in-law Elvira.

I told her in a letter today she had a birthday present coming, but I did not know when it would arrive, because I had heard that the computers had gone wrong.

Nowadays if something is done on the computers and they make a mistake, you have to live with it.

So I will appreciate it if you will tell her before March 21, that the computers are all working again, and her paper is paid till June 12, 1967, for which I thank you.

About computers: I used to get 10 cents more on Social Security than my dear wife. LBJ gave us a raise and the computers gave my wife 10 cents more than I get. How about that.

Thank you all, and may God bless you.

The Woman and the HOUSE

Here are some more of Mrs. Chester Vore's good recipes. We tried one last week, her jello and apple sauce combination--and it works! When your family goes blah on the usual jello concoctions, try Mrs. Vore's recipe. Easy, too, and inexpensive.

SLOPPY JOES

Brown about 1/2 lb. of ground beef and 2 to 3 medium onions in frying pan.

After they are browned, add salt, barbecue seasoning, onion salt and garlic salt, catsup and mustard (to one's taste and judgment).

Let this cook in good, stirring often.

Then add Campbell's chicken gumbo soup.

And that's all there is to it. It's delicious!

GEORGIA PECAN PIE

1/2 c sugar
1 c. dark corn syrup
3 t. butter or oleo
3 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
1/8 tsp. salt
1 c pecan halves
1 t. flour
1 t. sugar

Unbaked 9-in. pastry shell.

In a 1 qt. saucepan, over moderate heat, bring the 1/2 c sugar and corn syrup to a boil, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, in a medium-sized mixing bowl, beat eggs slightly. Slowly pour hot mixture over eggs.

Stir in vanilla, salt and pecans.

Mix flour and 1 t. sugar.

Then pour filling in pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees to 375 degrees, about 45 minutes.

Mrs. Chester Vore.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS

By Helen Alwood

Mrs. Virginia Herman, kindergarten teacher at Weidman, celebrated her birthday last Wednesday.

The morning group mothers planned a little party for her. Nine mothers and one grandmother attended, along with five pre-schoolers.

Ice cream cups and cupcakes were enjoyed at the children's milk time.

Mrs. Herman was presented a beautiful plant.

The morning group of 20 entertained their mothers, singing their songs and acting them out. The mothers were amazed at how they remembered their songs with so many verses, and act them out so nicely.

On Friday, Mrs. Margaret Gingrich of the Fourth Grade and Mrs. Houghton, Fifth Grade teacher, were pleasantly surprised when their children held a party for them. Their birthdays are both on March 6.

Ice cream and cake and soft drinks were enjoyed by the students and the mothers who could attend.

The children presented their teachers with a gift, and wished them many more birthdays.

Weidman is very fortunate to have these wonderful teachers in its school system.
