HALLOWE'EN CAME EARLY FOR THE MESSENGER

The Messenger had gremlins in its edition last week, whether an early-Hallowe'en visitation or just our allotted luck, we can't say.

Weird things happened to our pages, as when some readers received copies containing two pages of West Gilmore News and other received copies containing two pages of Horr News. The ones who got two pages of West Gilmore had no Horr news; and the ones who got two pages of Horr items got no West Gilmore.

Some of our readers received Messenger copies that were okay. This is purely beyond reason.

The Messenger is printed four pages at once, on a single sheet of paper. After the first run is made the paper is turned over, the press plate removed and fitted on the press for the reverse side, which has the remaining four pages of the paper.

The paper remains in one sheet, all eight pages, till the complete press run is made, after which it is taken to a power cutter and the Messenger is ready to fold and mail.

Like we said, we can't figure what happened. It ain't possible, but it happened.

Gremlins, that's what. That's all we can figure, and Hallowe'en came early to the Messenger.

EDWARD NEUBECKER CAME FROM WEIDMAN, NOT MT. PLEASANT, WE SAY

In radio and Mt. Pleasant newspaper accounts of the Anthis criminal-court hearings last week Edward Neubecker, Milwaukee attorney, was claimed by Mt. Pleasant news media as being a Mt. Pleasant native-son, "of 18 years residence". We hasten to assert that Edward Neubecker, attorney in Milwaukee and doing well, is a Weidman boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Neubecker of Nottawa.

Edward attended the Weidman School nine years, and graduated from the Beal City High School. Then he attended the Georgetown Law School at Washington, D.C., from which he graduated. But he had 22 years of legal residence in Weidman. He never did live in Mt. Pleasant.

He came to Mt. Pleasant to

OCTOBER IN MICHIGAN

OCTOBER 27--At our place in Weidman, Mich. Winter came suddenly, with five inches of snow that stayed on the ground.

OCTOBER 30--Our place was back to autumn garb again by Monday, with many of our deciduous trees and shrubs still wearing their summer leaves. All we can say is, This is Michigan, for you. Messenger photos

WEIDMAN AGAIN WILL ATTEMPT TO INCORPORATE

At a meeting of the Weidman Business Association at The Coffee Break Restaurant Monday evening, it was decided to attempt incorporation of the village once more. An attempt two years ago was defeated by one vote.

Present to advise the members was Attorney Steve Fox of Mt. Pleasant, who did the legal work for the WBA in the former attempt.

Mr. Fox said the first hurdle is approval by the Isabella County Board of Supervisors, who by law decide whether or not to set an election date for such procedures.

A population census will have to be taken again, which is the first step. Mr. Fox will handle the legal paperwork in the present attempt.

Careful delineations of outside lines of the proposed incorporation map will be considered, with approval of landowners in these areas obtained before the map is officially laid out.

NO MORE CANADIAN GEESE

Our small flock of Canadian geese no longer seeks rest here. They were fair game to hunters. To bird and wildlife lovers, they were a delight to watch.

One was shot after dusk, dead in the water next morning.

Men in Uniform

(Editor's Note: Send in addresses of servicemen so friends and relatives can send them Christmas cards and packages. Even if your Man in Uniform's address has been printed before, we'll print again all sent to us, so we can all send greetings to our boys. Deadline is coming right up for mail to Viet Nam in time for Christmas.)

Bill Bierschbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bierschbach, has been promoted to Sp/4, at Fort Bragg, N.C.

Doug Vandlen, son of Rev. and Mrs. Arlo Vandlen of Lakeview, has been home on furlough from the Army, with orders to report to Fort Lewis, Wash., and thence on to Viet Nam.

Gary Thomas is spending a 17-day furlough from Fort Ord, Cal., at the Ted Smith home. From here he will go to Germany, and will be in communications.

Sp/4 Larry Sisco will be home on a 13-day furlough beginning Nov. 6. He will go back to Fort Hood, Texas, till Jan. 12, when his time in the service is up.

Earl Fox, Gary Rau, Connie Fedewa, Linda Pohl and Barb Jackson motored to Detroit Friday night to pick up Pat Coughlin, home from the Army for the weekend. Pat is the son of Mrs. Theresa Coughlin. He is stationed at Fort Knox.

Pfc. Steve Thren of Fort Hood, Texas, has fired expert with a .45 pistol again. This was announced over the radio last week as it was also a year ago. Steve's two years in service will be up Feb. 1.

Pfc. Stanley Thren of Fort Hood, Texas, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Martin, last Wednesday night. Stan said he was fine, and keeps busy and has been in a year now. He doesn't think he'll be home for Christmas. We'll print his address later.

Here's a new address:
SA Steven Gary Brown, B53-34-34, USS F.D. Roosevelt (CVA-42), FPO New York, N.Y. 09501.
Steve is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Brown (Jean Garner) of Mt. Pleasant. He left recently to fly to Spain where he was to board the aircraft carrier.

Missionary convention starts Wednesday at 7.30 p.m. and continues through Nov. 5.

Our annual Missionary Convention has Bro. John Burgess of Pontiac as evangelist Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Slide pictures will be shown Friday and Saturday nights. A movie film of the life and poverty in New Guinea will be shown by Jim Humel of Canada, who has served four years there and will return in January. He will be our evangelist Sunday morning and night. There will be special singing each night. We urge you to attend these meetings:

Our Hallowe'en party was a howling, hilarious success. An enjoyable time was had by all who attended. There were about 70 in attendance, most in costume. It is a blessing we don't have to live in such poverty as some appeared to be in.

Our young people attended a revival meeting at the Wesleyan Methodist Church last week and enjoyed singing two selections for them, which resulted in an invitation to sing at the revivals at the Trinity Church this week. We are very proud of this group of young people.

The Missionary Society ladies met last Thursday at the church annex, and succeeded in tying off a quilt. They are planning a bazaar for some time in December, so we would appreciate any doilies, aprons, potholders or whatnots you may have on hand. Proceeds will be used to supply our nursery at church.

Mack and Sis Margie Denslow are planning to leave for Florida this week. We wish them a safe journey and an enjoyable winter. Think of us, folks while you are sitting in the sunshine and we are wading snowbanks. Will miss you. Hurry back.

WEIDMAN TOPS CLUB REPORT

By Ettabelle Sellers

The Weidman "Hep" TOPS met at the school Oct. 17, with weight losses reported at 44 3/4 pounds and gains of only 12 3/4 pounds. A good week. Marcie Deming was the Princess, with Mary Smith as Queen.

The Oct. 24 meeting was not so good, with losses reported at 26 1/4 pounds and gains of 27 3/4 pounds. Marcella Hills was Queen for the week, and Caroline Engler was Princess.

Emma Middlesworth, Ruth Pung and Virginia Herman reached their "KOPS" status (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly) this week, and were graduated in a lovely candlelight ceremony. These girls have reached their ideal weight goals and will always be TOPS' most honored members.

Joann Charnes gave a talk, and a low-calorie lunch was served in celebration.

This week was our Hallowe'en party, with prizes going to the best costumes.

Good luck, girls, and see you lighter.
