GEORGE SKINNER GETS A NICE GAFF HOOK FOR THE WINTER FISHING

Paul S. Fahnestock of Detroit stopped in at the Skinner place last week and presented George with a brand new, hand-made gaff hook, a gift for his use in ice fishing this winter.

Paul and his nephew visited with the Skinners, and Paul gave us a copy of the Detroit News before the strike stopped its publication, in which a story of a 74-year-old fisherman "reminded him of George," Paul said.

The story told of the venerable fisherman wanting to catch one big beautiful trout "before he died," and finally he caught one, a great big one. The man died, but he got his big fish at last.

Paul is a brother of Mrs. Fred Rescoe. The gaff hook was much appreciated by George.

WEIDMAN LIONS CLUB

LIONS ZONING MEETING HELD AT CEDAR LAKE

Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, a zoning meeting was held at Marview Restaurant at Cedar Lake.

Those attending from the Weidman Club were Leon McArthur, Bernard Pitts and Jim Carrick. It was suggested that each Lion member should try and get five new members a year.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 15, the regular meeting of the Lions Club met in the Methodist Church basement. After a tasty beef dinner, the business meeting was held, with 16 members present. Frank Tvorik received his Lion's pin, as a new member.

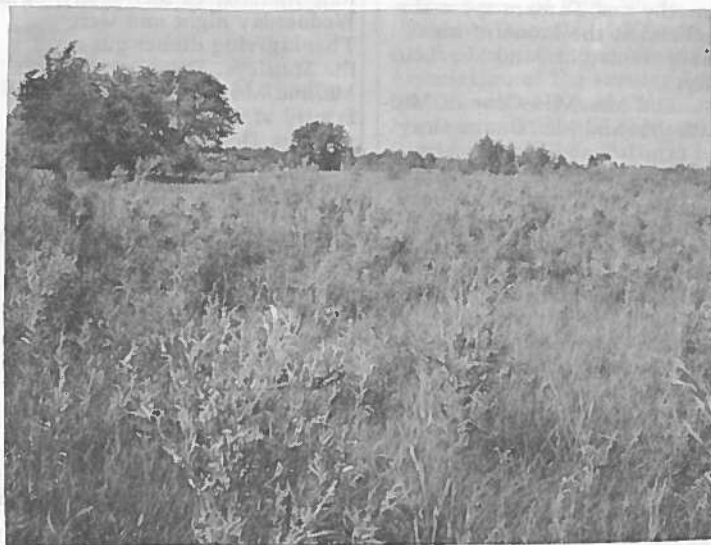

Don Stanley was holder of the kitty. He made candle holders of birch logs and sold them, doubling the amount in the kitty.

There will be only one meeting in December, and that will be Dec. 6, at the Marview Restaurant at Cedar Lake. The men will take their wives, or a guest, for a 7 o'clock dinner.

Hope all members and guests will be able to attend.

Emil Lueder, Reporter.

Today there are open fields where once stood the school, and stores, and homes. Today Sherman City is still a charming spot, with several lovely homes--but no stores.

In the Editor's Mail

To the Editor of Weidman Messenger:

I was told that in the issue of about Nov. 16 you had a picture and writeup on the old Sherman School. If it is at all possible, I would like two copies of that article. Be glad to pay for them.

You won't remember, but I called at your flower shop last May to buy a plant for my aunt. I am a sister to Mrs. Vern De-long.

My husband attended this Sherman School and I wrote on 8th Grade exam there, and at that time met my husband for the first time. Would appreciate this favor.

Sincerely, Mrs. Geo. Peacock Davison, Mich.

Dear Connie:

Thanks for sending the paper. We enjoy it, and hope you are feeling better. Keep up the good work.
