OUR SENIOR CITIZENS REALLY ENJOY THEMSELVES

Senior citizens of this area are self-sufficient in their arrangements for twice-a-month entertainment at pepper at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Beal City.

They do the planning, they do the work, they do the card playing--and everyone has a purely wonderful time.

No other effort at entertaining our "Senior Citizens" in the entire county draws such crowds as the Beal City card parties.

Last Thursday there were 19 tables of pepper in play.

The party honored Joe Tilmann on his birthday, with refreshments furnished by his family.

First prizes were won by Albina Rau and John Schumacher, second by Bertha Schumacher and Jerome Young. John Schumacher also won the pepper prize. Rose Grinzinger won the door prize.

Ice cream, cookies, and a delicious birthday cake were enjoyed after the games.

Like we said, we oldsters do have fun, and with no dependence on others than our oldster selves for the arrangements.

THE BLOOMING GERANIUM IS STARTING EARLY

The fantastically prolific geranium which Mrs. Ethel Bywater coaxed into vigorous life last year is beginning its amazing blooming season early this spring.

Saturday Mrs. Bywater reported the plant had seven blossoms and 10 buds.

One of the red branches of the pink-blooming plant died, she reported, but she has one red blossom among the lovely pink ones at this time.

It is truly an amazing plant.

And on the very sad side:

Two of our prominent business men have been fighting for life in two hospitals:

Jim Palmer in Ford Hospital in Detroit, suffering serious injuries in an auto accident;

Ray Shook in Clare General Hospital with complications after pneumonia.

Weidman just can't afford to lose either of these. We offer our sincere hopes.

As we go to press we have no late report on the condition of either one.

A FEW OF THE LOVELY ARTISTIC PIECES--That Bea Gross makes of hand-poured colored plastic that comes out solid, or in delicate leaf and flower petals, but all designed by Mrs. Gross. She started it as a hobby, now sells a good number of pieces at prices ranging from the elite to the anyone-can-afford-it classes.

Bea Gross, the charming wife of Charles Gross of Weidman, was working at the State Home and Training School until last April (1968), when she suffered a virus infection that settled in a leg and made further work on her feet impossible.

She took up plastics casting as a pastime, making birthday and Christmas gifts.

"It was so interesting, I just kept at it as a hobby; but presently I was taking orders, for lamps, both the hanging type and table lamps, centerpieces, wall decorations, ash trays, and other items.

"Now it's more than a hobby --but not yet a full-fledged business," Mrs. Gross said in an interview.

She has a window show at Ray's Shopping Center (Shook's), with some of her outstanding pieces.

A couple of her ash trays grace the Messenger office, and they are the most beautiful we've ever had.

Bea has exquisite taste in her designs and arrangements, and we wish her all the best in her fascinating interest. We hope she opens a gift shop in Weidman one day.

With our tourist and cottager population, it just might be indicated in the foreseeable future.

HEAVY LOSS IN GARAGE FIRE THURSDAY

Fred Wilcox suffered a heavy loss when his two-car garage behind his home was gutted by fire. The Weidman Volunteer Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze, but the whole interior was aflame and the garage was pretty well filled with tools and equipment.

Included in the loss was Spike Branson's lift loader which was parked there; and also a good refrigerator, $500 worth of tools owned by Fred; a Wheelhorse tractor owned by Dick Curtiss; and many other items, including a paint sprayer, a quantity of clover seed, etc.

Jim Wilcox's car was parked there, but he managed to get it out without damage.

A five-gallon can of gasoline and five gallons of paint added fuel to the flames.

The building and contents were only partially covered by insurance.

NEWS NOTES

First crocus blooms reported are those Blanche Cliff has under her big window. They were blooming Sunday, March 22. We are jealous. The Messenger's crocus aren't starting to peep through as yet. But we congratulate Blanche.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Martin of Beal City were Monday callers of Mr. and Mrs. George Skinner.

Men in Uniform

TEN MEN LEAVE FOR ARMY TRAINING

Ten men left from the Mt. Pleasant Selective Service office Monday, March 17, for Detroit, to be sworn into the U. S. Army.

Among them were Danny K. Kyser, Lake; George W. Maybee, Gary O. Marshall, Thomas M. Fox, and Kenneth E. Turnwald, all of Shepherd; Randy J. Inosencio and Douglas A. Klumpp of Mt. Pleasant; and two transfers, one from California and one from Texas.

Sp/4 Hugh W. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Lewis of rural Rosebush, is in Vietnam. His address:

Sp/4 Hugh W. Lewis, USS498-3253, Hq. & Hq. Troop, 1st Sqdn., 9th Cav., 1st Air Cav. Div., APO San Francisco Calif. 96490.

Navy Ensign Stephen W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Smith of Nottawa, graduated from Flight Systems School at Naval Aviation Schools Command at Pensacola, Fla.

Aviation Ordnanceman Second Class William E. Hardenburgh (we erred in putting him in Third Class, and we hereby apologize, Bill!), son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hardenburgh, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Hancock, and has been in Alameda, Calif.

The 25-year-old carrier had just returned from an eight-month deployment in Vietnam, its fourth combat tour since the war began.

Here's a new address:

Pvt. Curtiss Battleshaw, US-67200287, Co. D, 1st Br., 1st Bde, USA TCI, Fort Bragg, N. C., 3rd Plt., 2807.

Curt is the son of Mrs. Hazel Battleshaw, who left for service in February. He will graduate in April, and Hazel hopes to attend.

Here's a Navy address:

Delwin Wood, SR, B 55-62-68, Co. 166, Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill. 60088.

Delwin enlisted for four years, and left March 10 from Mt. Pleasant. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Wood, just received his mailing address this week.

He wrote his family, "Tell my friends to write, and I'll answer any letters I get."
