HELPER-OUTERS IN TIME OF NEED

Weidman business people will bust a tug to help others in time of need.

We found that out (once more) last Friday evening, just before 6 o'clock, when Colin Campbell, former owner-editor of the Barryton Press, called Ye Ed and said his car had quit right in front of the Allen Lumber Company office.

His wife, recently out of the hospital after a heart attack, was with him.

Colin asked us if we would look up the number of the Marshall repair garage and call and see if someone would come and try to get the Campbell car started on its way home to Barryton.

We called Alan Marshall, who said Sure, he'd go and see what could be done.

After about an hour, when Ye Ed got her Friday afternoon chores done, we got in our own car and went down to the Marshall garage, and sure enough, Alan Marshall had had the car towed to his garage and he and Larry Maxon were working on it.

It was a totally dead car, before they started in on it, and both men worked right through their supper hour, until nearly 8 o'clock, but they got the Campbell car running smooth as clockwork, and just before eight, Colin and Ina were on their way to Barryton.

Both the Campbells are in poor health, but Colin still runs his small printshop over there, doing "jobwork" wherever he can find it. We wish him luck.

And, as old, old friends of the Campbells, we thank Alan Marshall and Larry Maxon for getting their car on the road again. This was purely a neighborly gesture, as Marshall's garage was scheduled to close at 6 p.m.

We think that's a good deed worthy of mention.

NO NEWSPAPER PRINTS ANONYMOUS LETTERS

Ye Ed received an anonymous letter last week, signed "Confused," but with no name or address on the letter or envelope.

Sorry, Confused, but it will be a cold old day when any editor prints an anonymous letter. We

MRS. LOUISE SMITH DOES BEAUTIFUL QUILTING WORK--At age 87 1/2, Mrs. Louise Smith of Beal City works quite steadily at her quilting frames, and she does beautiful work on gorgeous hand-pieced quilts. She has always been active and creative, and has made many things for her house and lawn.

The quilt she is shown working on she pieced together, from the start. Some quilts are brought to her just for quilting, but she also makes many of her own.

She and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Rau, are giving this quilt to the church for its big festival celebration next summer.

Mrs. Smith will be 88 next July, but she is spry and hard-working.

In other years she has made several pieces of furniture for her home, very nice pieces, too. She also did the masonry work on a Virgin shrine in a back corner of her lawn. She made the stone flower pots and boxes around her porch.

She is the widow of E. N. Smith, and in the old days "we lived upstairs over the store," Louise says simply. Then, in 1949 they built the large cobblestone house which is now the family home. The Smiths had eight children, four boys and four girls.

Louise Smith has made about 300 quilts, she estimates, at a rate of about 18 or 19 a year.

We hope she has many more active years for her creative efforts.

HOME PAPER FOR THE WEST HALF OF ISABELLA COUNTY

Messenger photo

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and Jane and Kathleen of Mt. Pleasant, and Lisa and Pat Bywater of Midland spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Kit Johnson.

RON SCHAFER GETS A BIG ONE--A 33 1/2-inch pike, weight 7 1/2 pounds, Sunday morning. He hauled in a 29-inch weighing five pounds, Saturday. Ron is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaffer of Beal City. Terry Schaffer also got a big one recently. Fishing was on tip-ups, with minnows for bait. As usual at this time of year, fishing will pick up until the ice breakup, both for pike and bluegills, on area lakes.

sure would like to print this one, as it's what we've been fishing for, and waiting for.

If the writer, who had the courage to criticize Ye Ed but not the courage to sign his name, will just send us a note, saying, "I wrote that letter," and identify the letter, we'll be happy to print it.

The letter would be printed as "Signed, Confused," without the writer's name; but the newspaper must know who sent it or it won't see the light of day.

This is not just the policy of the Weidman Messenger. It is the policy of every newspaper everywhere.

And so, as the letter-writer ended with a grand flourish, touche'!

Dora Smith, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Al Clevenger are spending two weeks in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schafer and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schafer left Monday by plane on a two weeks' tour of Old Mexico, Aca-pulco, Mexico City, Puerto Rica and the Guadalupe Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Schafer and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schafer and family had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schafer.

Mrs. Effie Schafer and Mrs. Matie Pung spent Tuesday with Peter Schafer. Mrs. Pung drove to Midland last Wednesday for a medical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schafer spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Tony Schafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schafer spent last Thursday evening with the Tony Schafers.

Louise Schafer is spending a few weeks in Chicago with her sister, Mrs. La Rue Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Van Pelt spent Sunday in Lansing with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keiffer made a trip to Hubbardston Sunday.

Mrs. Leo Gross visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keiffer one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zurhorst visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Joe Keiffer, Saturday, and were supper guests.

Albina Rau spent Saturday evening with Louise Smith. Ernest Voisin of Mt. Pleasant visited in the afternoon. The Art Proefrocks of Reed City also were Sunday guests of Mrs. Smith.

Oscar Fedewa spent Tuesday and Wednesday with his daughter, June Blasen, and family.

Don Rau and family of Lansing called on the Louis Rau family Sunday.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Brenda Quillen, who died last Friday in CMC Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pasch moved to their cottage, and Mr. and Mrs. David Bollman moved into the Pasch house last Saturday.

Miss Diane Sheahan returned home last Thursday, Feb. 19, from St. Mary's Hospital in Saginaw, where she had been since Feb. 10, following an auto accident. Mrs. Louis Rau called on Ann Schafer at Mrs. Martin Joseph Quillen's Tuesday.

Delores Rau was reported as getting along as well as could be expected, at CMC Hospital, after suffering injuries in the accident Feb. 10. She had a broken pelvis bone and fractured knee cap, and last week it was discovered her hip was out of joint.

Diane Sheahan was reported as doing well, and was up and around, at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zeien had

Monday supper with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith.

LIONS CLUB FISH FRY HAS 325 IN ATTENDANCE

The Lions Club fish fry at the Weidman school cafeteria netted about $250, according to word received this week. About 325 fish dinners were served by the Lions, their wives and other volunteers, who helped greatly to make the affair a huge success. The public also showed its approval of the good work done by the Lions Club, with the large attendance.

The Lions are planning another fish fry, at the same place, on Friday, March 13. Note the date and enjoy a delightful fish supper among friends.
