SO WE MAKE ERRORS IN LAST WEEK'S MESSENGER

So we made a couple of boobos in last week's Messenger, for which we sincerely apologize, as the errors had to do with the upcoming Primary Elections Aug. 8.

First and foremost, we neglected to list Joseph D. Pepper, a candidate for the office of County Sheriff, who lives in Nottawa Township and is well known in that area.

Pepper said in an interview Saturday that if elected he will provide security for Weidman's streets at night and for Mitchell Memorial Park, which is being destroyed by vandals.

On this alone, local folks will look closely at Mr. Pepper as a candidate.

*****

We also had an elliptical list of township officials in Broomfield. We got a list of candidates from the County Clerk's office, but it listed only those running for office, not those incumbent.

Here's a corrected list for Broomfield:

The current Supervisor of Broomfield is Ralph Strong, who is not running for re-election. Candidate running is Wayne Cole, Republican. Gale Krueger is incumbent Township Clerk, and he also is not running for re-election. Running on the Republican ticket is Elmer Frazer. Harold Lapham is present Township Treasurer, and he is running for re-election. Trustees are Richard Cook and Harris Diehl, Robert Cook, all incumbents. Running for election are Bill Brown, Republican, and Bob Fanning, Democrat.

POTATO THIEVES WARNED OF CHEMICALS USED

Richard Cook, who has about 800 acres of potatoes in a three-county area, including the Weidman area, told the Messenger last Friday that thieves had dug up about half an acre of his half-grown potatoes, probably to sell on the market.

There is a warning out on the use of these potatoes: They have grown in soil treated with a poison, trade name Di-Syston, a chemical taken in through the roots of the potato plants. Normally, he said, the poison wears

EMMA MIDDLESWORTH CUTS RIBBON AT OPENING OF ALLEN CAMPAIGN HDQTRS.

Emma Middlesworth, precinct chairman for the Weidman area Republican Party, helped cut the ribbon at the opening of Rep. Richard Allen's campaign headquarters in Mt. Pleasant Monday.

Mrs. Middlesworth was accompanied by Myrtle Bowerman and Claribel Beutler, to hear Rep. Allen's opening campaign speech.

Allen has charged John Engler, currently State Representative for the 100th District, of using taxpayers' money to further his campaign for re-election. He called on Engler to reimburse the State of Michigan for the expenditure.

Engler's mailing of 29,000 printed brochures was not illegal, he said, but asked whether such should be done during an election campaign.

He said that Engler requested and received approval from the Speaker of the House Bill Ryan to have 30,000 pieces printed and 29,000 mailed.

He said this mailing was not a off by the harvest time for potatoes later, but at this time potatoes taken from the ground are a serious threat to the health, and perhaps to the lives, of those eating them.

"Di-Syston is a deadly poison which can be harmful if enough is absorbed by the human body," a spokesman for the Isabella County Extension Service said.

"Symptoms to be aware of, if the chemical has been taken internally, are tightness of the chest, sweating, stomach pain, diarrhea, vomiting, and contracted pupils of the eyes."

"If these symptoms are present, a doctor should be called at once, and the person should not be given morphine," the spokesman said.

The poison is commonly used by potato growers everywhere on a commercial scale, and will wear off by harvest time, Dick Cook said.

Dusting planes, also used extensively in the potato fields, lay fungicides on the growing potato plants, which is not absorbed into the potato crop.

Later in the season, planes will use a herbicide called "Premarg" to kill plant tops and allow the tubers to develop for the harvest.

part of Engler's routine constituent services and the pieces were mailed not only to his own constituents, Allen said, but also to Clare and Gratiot Counties, not now part of Engler's district since the reorganization this year. The mailing alone, Allen said, cost as much as Engler's first-year total postage expense.

Engler responded on a Tuesday morning radio broadcast, saying the out-of-district mailings had been a mistake by a mailing outfit he employed to do the job, and that the situation would be corrected.

He added he had hoped the election campaign would stay on issues only and omit personality conflicts.
