WE'VE BEEN FEEDING THE BIRDS

You can put in quite some time attending the birds in winter, but they pay you well. We have flocks of the bright-red cardinals, and of course the noisy jays; and woodpeckers, and all the smaller birds, up from the swamps and woods to get their food from us who can make it available to them when they need it.

Frances Tranbarger is one of the most faithful bird-tenders we know. She keeps two feeders, besides corn-on-the-cob, going at all times, and she keeps snow and ice cleared off, too; no small job in the weather the first of this week. She has had flocks of evening grosbeaks, besides the commoner ones we have at our place.

For ourselves, and the Tranbargers next door, we have corn on the cob, and a grain feeder, on a big elm tree; and George puts pieces of bread on sticks of branches of rose bushes at our dining room window, and we watch the chickadees and juncos, and even the cardinals, getting their meals at our window.

Eda Van Zandt, who has a store on M-20 at the Weidman road, says she has birds of all kinds, and all over the place, as she feeds them regularly. She also has some little rabbits, she said this week.

"I put out the lettuce trimmings for them," she said. "I'll feed any of the little wild things that come along."

Amelia Douglas

Mrs. Amelia A. Douglas died last Friday at 2 o'clock a. m., Jan. 29, at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Howard Hoag, in Bay City.

She was born Amelia Gordon, on Dec. 2, 1889, and married Earl Douglas in 1911. She was 75 years old at the time of her death.

Surviving are her only son, Hugh Douglas, of Gilmore; nine grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Jan. 31, at the Coker Funeral Home in Farwell, with C. Hiram Gates officiating. Interment was in the Gilmore Cemetery.

BAR ASSOCIATION ENDORSES STEPHEN FOX

The Isabella County Bar Association, at a recent meeting, endorsed the candidacy of Mt. Pleasant Attorney Stephen W. Fox for the office of Circuit Court Judge for the 21st Judicial District.

In support of the motion for endorsement, his fellow attorneys lauded Mr. Fox's many years of experience as a court officer while serving as a Justice of the Peace, Prosecuting Attorney, and Circuit Court Commissioner for Isabella County.

It was also pointed out that Isabella County has not had a Circuit Judge for 47 years, and it is now Isabella's turn.

After the motion was passed, Mr. Fox expressed his appreciation and briefly commented on the excellent reception he has received as a candidate.

The meeting was adjourned after the completion of routine business.

Barryton Voters Reject Merger

Barryton school district residents soundly defeated consolidation plans favored by many in the Mecosta-Remus school district when they voted down the proposal last Saturday.

One hundred majority 'no' votes told the story in the Barryton district.

The issue, which raised heated arguments among groups for and against the consolidation, also was voted down last spring.

The core of the issue was eventually to form a central high school with elementary centers remaining in their respective locations.

The hotly contested consolidation vote final tally was: Barryton — 424 yes and 524 no; Mecosta — 140 yes and 49 no, and Remus — 257 yes and 82 no.

Although the proposal received a total favorable vote, it was required to be approved in each of the two districts involved — the Barryton district and the Mecosta-Remus district — before going into effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Allen plan to leave Sunday for California for several weeks. Mrs. Allen's sister lives in San Luis Obispo, between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

NEW BUSINESS OPENS IN WEIDMAN NEXT WEEK

Gladys Navarre will hold Open House at her new beauty salon at the corner of the school road and the Airline in Weidman Sunday, Feb. 7, inviting everyone to come in and "browse around", to look over Central Michigan's newest, most beautiful and most completely equipped salon.

The Navarres, Olen and Gladys, bought a few acres at the west end of Roe's Acres, including the old printshop building, and have made for themselves a lovely homesite which includes a small private park. Now they are making that corner a business place, with Gladys' new Beauty Salon which she has named "The Glamour Nook."

They have rebuilt the inside of the old printshop building so no one could recognize it as the same place.

Inside it is spacious and beautifully finished in wood-paneled walls and tiled ceiling, with a beautiful floor.

Gladys has complete equipment, with three shampoo places and six dryers. Everything is spic and span and new and very beautiful.

Gladys' assistant will be Dee Hackney, a licensed operator. The new business already has appointments for next week, and apparently will fit into our area as a needed adjunct without hurting other businesses.

The Glamour Nook will receive callers Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5, inviting husbands to bring their wives and look over the new establishment. On Tuesday, Feb. 9, the salon will start business.

We welcome this new venture, and wish the Navarres all success. Their improvements on that corner already have been outstanding, and the salon building will be finished on the outside as soon as weather permits, Mr. Navarre said this week.

The new Salon's building, besides being the old printshop, was John S. Weidman's first "office" building for his sawmill business. Floyd Mitchell kept his books there, and sold a few groceries there, in the first days of the beginning of Weidman Village.

The old building is all new inside. You should see it.

MEET NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Weidman Rebekah Lodge will hold its regular meeting next Monday evening, Feb. 8, at 8 o'clock, at the Oddfellows Hall.

In the Editor's Mail

To the Editor:

In most mergers of school districts, four of the main areas of extensive study are facilities needed, curriculum, transportation, and finance.

After somewhat hurried consideration of these topics, my non-professional opinion is that the people in the Beal City-Weidman communities are very fortunate indeed to have what seems to be a rare situation in the state. A merger of our school districts would be possible without the probability of an enormous capital outlay for a building program.

Both communities have fine school buildings, which would, when the districts were combined, be able to accommodate the increased number of students for some years to come. Minor adjustments might be necessary, but no new buildings should be needed.

Curriculum could be improved considerably, with the added efficiency and economy gained from the combining of districts.

Transportation should be no problem. In fact, by eliminating the overlapping routes and the use of full bus capacities, there is a strong possibility that financial savings could be made.

Finance is not easily or accurately problemed out by the average citizen and should be left up to the school administrators to ascertain, but my personal reasoning would suggest that the combination of budgets of the schools involved would provide adequate finance to insure a broader curriculum, a high quality professional teaching staff, and sound administrative board. We would then have the resultant assurance that better educational opportunities were available, LOCALLY, for our children.

Realizing that my views do not necessarily reflect the views of the majority of the people involved, but believing that something must be done to provide our children a better education, I must, as a parent interested in the advancement of my children, and a businessman interested in future citizens with better leadership abilities than I possess, recommend that a movement be started immediately to merge the school systems of Beal City and Weidman into the Beal City-Weidman Public Schools.

An Interested
Weidman Business Man.

ROE'S ACRES--Last year we sold a small piece on the Airline Rd. and now it is improved and will become an asset to the town. This year we plan to further develop Roe's Acres, for beautiful home-sites, and for recreation. Our wildlife--the birds, including game birds; and rabbits, deer, muskrats, squirrels, foxes, and the mischievous but adorable raccoons, are protected on our place. There is not hunting or trapping on Roe's Acres. Home sites are on blacktop road, but set back from the highway, desirable for families with children or pets. Watch Roe's Acres as it develops. We're no big outfit, but we keep developing our beautiful wilderness acres. Geo. Skinner, ph. 644-3747.

Hello, Connie and George:
How are you? Got a card from Harry Herman--was glad to hear from him.
I was sick about five days, but the shots and pills have me mean as ever now.
Received your paper today and was glad to get it. Read every line in it. The pictures of Leon and Gladys McArthur were good.

FOR THE RECORD, NO SCHOOL LAST WEEK

Weidman Community School
 was closed all last week, due to ice, snow, and sub-zero weather which also closed most of the schools in central Michigan and indeed all over the state.

The Weidman School's schedule was announced day by day, on morning radio newscasts. A few schools, such as Beal City, had one day of school the first of the week.

By Friday the blizzard was over but Thursday night's temperature was 20 degrees below zero, and schools generally remained closed.
 Freezing rain the first of the week made roads impossible for school buses, then we had a real snow storm over the ice.
 Then the cold deepened, and we wound up the week with roads still dangerous and cold such as we have not had in years.

SCHOOL BUS DRIVERS DECIDE ROAD CONDITIONS

Authority for determining whether school should be held or not,
 when weather conditions for bus
 travel are considered unfavorable, has been vested in the majority opinion of the bus drivers by the Weidman Community School Board.

It is thought that the drivers, who travel the same route every day, would have the best knowledge of whether the buses can travel safely or not.

This relieves the Superintendent of the responsibility for calling off school unless there are unusual circumstances of which the bus drivers are not aware, according to word from the school's office this week.

East Coldwater

Esther Skinner, Reporter

I believe that winter has really set in here this last week: Snowing, blowing, drifting the roads, and closing school. Glad for the snow, so as to help the farmers on wheat fields and so forth. We welcome the snow so as to protect pipes from freezing, with this cold-snap temperature below zero. Not a day we couldn't get out. Snow plows did a good job for us.

Alice and Brenda Skinner spent from Wednesday till Sunday with their grandmother, Elana Miller, in Farwell. Friday evening Harold took Wally, Ray and Dick to their Grandmother Miller's also, as she closes up for the winter Feb. 7, when she goes to St. Louis to her daughter's.

This community extends deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Amelia Douglas.

Weidman didn't hold school at all last week. Barryton had Monday off to correct test papers, had school Tuesday, then the rest of the week no school.

Not much news. Everyone stayed in by the fire. If they went to town they went out after the snow plow went through, and then back in.

Dewey Olger and Joyce and Dale called on Harold Skinner Sunday forenoon.

Ellen Geasler, Frances Beck and Mattie Longton attended the funeral of Mrs. Douglas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allen and children of Blanchard called on Mr. and Mrs. Harold Skinner Sunday morning. In the afternoon Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Alphretta Allen and children went to Farwell and brought back the Skinner children.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Geasler and children of Allegan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Geasler, over the weekend. Emily Geasler of Grand Rapids spent her week's vacation with her parents also.

Dewey Olger cleaned out drives for Bert Estes, Jim Maddox, Ed Olger and Jay Husted, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Olger were business callers in Weidman Friday. They called on Mrs. Gerald Latham also. Saturday they took Mr. and Mrs. Ed Olger to Barryton to vote on the school issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Olger and children and Jim Latham went to Mt. Pleasant Saturday to get Dale's glasses. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Conley.

Jim Latham was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Olger and children. Afternoon callers were Wendell and Terry Sisco, Gerald Latham and Gary Latham.

ENGINE OULTS, PLANE CRASHES TRYING TO MAKE OJIBWA LANDING STRIP

Ernest Lee of Flint crashed in a wooded area just south of the Ojibwa Airstrip Saturday when the engine of his rented plane quit and he couldn't quite make it to the emergency landing strip on the Ojibwa Recreation Area.

Ernie had rented the plane at Greenville, and was on his way to a family gathering at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Bessie Forbes, of Brinton, when engine trouble decided him to try to get to the 3,660-foot landing strip at Lake Windoga. Altitude gave out, however, just before he would have made a probably safe landing on the Ojibwa strip, and his plane crashed into trees.

He was lucky, walking away with only facial bruises. He went to the Keith Thompson home nearby and reported the circumstances.

The accident occurred Saturday afternoon, and the plane was removed at once.

The Ojibwa strip will be listed in the Air Field Directory as an emergency landing field, with a limited-use field rating expected this spring or summer.

Mr. Lee stayed Saturday night with his sister at Blanchard, then came on up for Sunday dinner at Mrs. Forbes'.

N. Broomfield

Maycie Cook, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Klumpp and Ione of Winn and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mead and son, Bobby, of Mt. Pleasant were Sunday dinner guests of Herman and Aliance Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Page of Lansing enjoyed birthday supper with Tom Latham and Mrs. Mary Cook of Remus. Tom's birthday was Friday.

Mrs. E. R. Rhode spent Friday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Mary Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lueder and boys of Lansing spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lueder. Jeffy will spend the week here.

Mrs. Elsie Richardson of Owosso spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cook.

Herman and Aliance Cook and Mrs. Glee Krueger and children spent Saturday with relatives in Lansing. Friday evening they enjoyed dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mead of rural Mt. Pleasant.
