NO, OUR LAWSUIT HAS NOT BEEN HEARD YET

Messenger readers think our lawsuit against Ivan and Alton Allen was settled last November, at which time we put in a notice that "Your paper may be late," as we were on half-day call to appear in court.

Our case did not come up, and we are still waiting to get a hearing in Circuit Court.

The suit was filed a year ago last October.

*****

With Dick Nixon happily occupying the White House and busily planning plans for this and that, Michigan is having a taxpayers' revolt, in full swing.

Taxpayers are now organized or in the process of organizing, in the following counties of Michigan:

Bay, Huron, Macomb, Lapeer, Tuscola, Roscommon, Clare, Gladwin, St. Joseph, Oakland, Sanilac, Wayne, Genesee, Osceola, St. Clair, Muskegon, Oceana, and Kent.

Project is to withhold property taxes for three years, then pay one year to retain ownership of land or homes.

We're for it. Seems like the lowly taxpayer should get a nod from legislators and Congressmen while ADC and welfare mothers go on strike (from what?) and "demonstrate" to get more of your tax money for the purpose of living "adequately" and producing more and more children without working to support themselves or their offspring.
